UPDATE ON TRAILS & TIMBERING

Be extremely cautious of the timbering machinery and trail changes when riding Trail 3 on the Township Road side.

As they wrap up the Bear Valley timbering project expect to see more timbering activity on Trail 9 as they move on. Stumpsville Boo!! Look on the bright side—why live in a fog of negativity, right!! Brightside: new trails are beaconing...start a new trail and make it your own.

Fact OF THE DAY

Houston We Have a Problem

Astronaut Jack Swigert, the command module pilot for Apollo 13, got the assignment at the last minute because of health concerns surrounding another astronaut. In the rush, Swigert neglected to file his taxes. According to the transcript of the moment he realized his mistake, the crew on the ground thought he was joking, but Swigert was seriously asking how to file an extension.

TAXES GO WAY BACK

Governments have imposed taxes for thousands of years. There are recordings of tax payments made in ancient Mesopotamia circa 2500 B.C. At the time, people who didn't have money to pay taxes often had to pay with livestock, food, or labor.

Go Ahead...Raise Our Taxes.

Early Spring? 🐰

Punxsutawney Phil better be on his game or else...or else, I don't know what...all I want is the warm air of Spring...SOON.

Following a week of frigid temperatures that gripped the Midwest, all eyes were on Pennsylvania's famed groundhog on Saturday in hopes of signs of relief.

And Punxsutawney Phil delivered good news on Groundhog Day morning, failing to see his shadow and thus predicting an early spring is on its way, according to local lore.
