Sweetheart Day

Our Sweetheart Day is less than a month away. Make plans for a nice ride with that special someone or just your friends. Come air out that cabin fever and join us for a nice scenic ride. You never know what the weather will bring, it may be snowing or the sun just might be shining, whatever it is we hope to see you all soon.

Bring your thermos to fill up on hot cocoa provided by us before your departure. Enjoy a chocolate snack before or after your ride!

February 10th

Campsite Markers

Just like last year, the year before and the year before that...you get the picture.... the new campsite stickers/markers are being put up by the RCTR staff.

If you already renewed your campsite this year, expect to see a yellow marker on your camp sign. It's very unlikely anyone can miss this year's color! If you've partly renewed your site, your sticker will not be placed until your balance is cleared.

Remember, the deadline to pay for all campsite fees is March 5th.

Campsite auditing will continue and updates will be put in the database. Keeping our database up to date helps our staff direct those looking for a campsite in the right direction and provides us with an inventory of all the structures throughout the campground.

Please let the office know if there are any issues regarding your campsite markers and we'll be happy to make any necessary changes.

Tip of the Day!

Birds not eating your seed? As an avid bird feeder all season, I can say that it seems our little birdie guests never tire from the black oil sunflower seeds; available at a local feed mill or chain distributor. Black oil sunflower seeds have a high percentage of meat and is a very nutritious source of high quality protein. They're easy for all sizes of birds to eat and boast a high concentration on oil which is especially important in the winter. It's also a great time to experiment with different foods. With a platform feeder, you can add nuts, doughnuts, popcorn, crumbs, and even fruit. Treat your birds to some home cooking by making muffins or bread. Soon you'll have a flock of birds in your yard.

Happy Bird
