RIDING OR NON-RIDING ALL GUESTS MUST BE SIGNED IN UPON ARRIVAL! THE GUEST WAIVER IS ON THE OUTSIDE OFFICE WALL 24/7.

Answer A: Risking loss of my membership and maybe even criminal prosecution for theft, I'll just go by last year's campsite sticker color and start stealing stuff when nobody's looking.

Or Answer B: Only a Rausch Creek manager can tell me what's truly abandoned. THE ANSWER ISSS B!

**Remember that little pop quiz you passed...*

Here's your reminder for all those looking to swipe up a campsite. The first week of March is usually a little cloudy with what's available in the transition period. The office sufficient has to catch up with sticker placing and other problems along the way. Our goal is to release the new list of available campsite list this weekend...maybe.

FEELING LUCKY?

Read. Engage. Ride.

Getting outdoors and enjoying our natural resources is truly something anyone can enjoy, especially here at RCTR! Our trails and campground are just that. They provide enjoyment, a connection to nature, an outlet for kids and adults health and sanity. There are the stories of rides and camping, those people and those places, etc. Ya can't NOT love it here.

It's the first Saturday of a new month. The month of February passed us in the night thank goodness. It's shocking to me that it's already March, but honestly, February 2022 was not my favorite month. WAY too cold for this gal...winter is surely for the birds...I'm the lizard who stays under the heat lamp hoping when I step away from the lamp, it's 70 degrees already; so very ready for spring!

March holds a lot of hope. It's the month where winter starts to turn to spring, and by the end of this month, we should see warmer temperatures and brighter skies. Melting snow, green sprouting up here and there...lots of things to look forward to! We are welcoming March with open arms and looking forward to seeing more and more of your smiling faces.
