With March being such a unpredictable month, in which we can see warm spring-like temperatures or late-season snowstorms, you can understand how this saying might hold true in some instances. The Winter season this year only gave us a couple of days worth of unbearable cold and snowy days. Will March bring actual winter weather? Who knows. Whether the weather is horrible or not, it is definitely time to get outside! Enjoy riding and shake out those cold offroad pipes.

Spring arrives officially on the 20th and we can't help but think of slightly warmer temperatures and a brightening sky. Heading outdoors and enjoying our natural resources is truly something anyone can enjoy, especially here at RCTR! Speaking of getting outdoors, we have the perfect excuse, for you to get out of the house with a special GUIDED GROUP RIDE to start off the season right. Remember the guided rides are FREE of charge and a lot of fun!!

Things to look forward to in March!

March 12– Daylight Savings Time– Spring forward! Sunrise and sunset will be 1 hour later

March 18—10:30am St. Patty's Day Ride —Wear your green, even if you're not Irish. Whoever comes in green get to put their name on a "lucky" gold coin in hopes of winning an RCTR sweatshirt. Your luck could be at the end of the rainbow.

March 20th— First day of Spring. Ready for the trees to start budding.

Sunday-Daylight Savings

The twice-yearly ritual has roots in cost-cutting strategies of the late 19th century. A bill to make daylight saving time permanent has re-emerged in Congress. If the Senate pushes for the change, it will certainly feel different to all of us for a few years.

Spring forward, Fall back; thanks to technology, our phones automatically change as we sleep. The only clocks you have to remember to change are the what I'll call, old fashioned "radio" clocks that sit on your dresser and your wall clocks.

A SAFETY REMINDER

Many fire departments encourage folks to change the batteries in their smoke detectors when they change their clocks because Daylight Saving Time provides a convenient reminder. Working smoke alarms decrease the risk of dying in reported home fires by nearly half according to the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA). In half of reported home fires in which smoke alarms were present but did not operate, the batteries had been removed or the alarm was disconnected due to dead battery alerts or nuisance alarms.
