

CAMPSITE RENEWALS & RULES

Campsite Renewals are Due

CAMPSITE RESERVATIONS EXPIRE THE END OF FEBRUARY.

Everyone taking advantage of the "grace period" should make sure to get settled up well before it expires at the end of the month. As of February 28th anything less than 100% payment of membership, campsite and structure fees could allow another member to snap up that desirable site they've been eyeing up. For the vultures looking for available sites, please give us until the first weekend of March to prepare "the list".

Any structures/work must go through the office. Decks, porches, pavilions, sheds, or even sitework must be brought to the offices attention before production.

Ground Hog Day

It's coming to the point of the winter season where the groundhog will tell us whether or not there will be six more weeks of winter.

Will Punxsutawney Phil will see his shadow or not?

You know the old adage - If the groundhog sees his shadow, he will return to hibernation and winter will last another few weeks. If he doesn't see his shadow, that means warm weather is around the corner.

The Old Farmer's Almanac predicts that Punxsutawney Phil will not see his shadow this year, which of course means an early spring for everyone. According to the Old Farmer's Almanac, the holiday originated with German immigrants in Pennsylvania in the 19th Century, but it also has its roots in some Celtic customs.

SUPERBOWL SUNDAY

The Super Bowl is the pinnacle of televised sports experiences. It's an American tradition that encourages binge eating, heavy drinking, and rooting for any team you want. The event takes place Sunday, February 9, 2025. The Philadelphia Eagles will face the Kansas City Chiefs once again. It's a rematch of Super Bowl LVII in 2023, when the Chiefs won a close 38-35 game over the Eagles. Super Bowl LIX also marks the fifth Super Bowl appearance for Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes. If that's not enough for you, there's always the commercials. That's right, if you just watch the Super Bowl for the ads, amid all the snacks and libations, there are the commercials: mini-movies advertising everything from booze to tax services.

More often than not, commercials are just plain nuisances on our TV screens. You can pay extra on streaming services just to remove them entirely, and most people take up those offers without hesitation. I've heard enough Skyrizi jingles for a lifetime. So it is exceptionally funny that one annual event wields the power to completely flip our hatred for advertisements. When the Super Bowl rolls around each year, people shush their friends and loved ones just to hear the commercials.

This year, the beer companies are starting out strong. Michelob Ultra plans to have Willem Dafoe, Catherine O'Hara, Sabrina Ionescu, and Ryan Crouser all play pickleball. Bud Light features a hangout between Post Malone and Shane Gillis, and Stella Artois has David Beckham discovering his long-lost twin. Elsewhere, Adam Brody stars in a mysterious Pringles ad and Charli XCX explains football for Uber Eats beginners. Personally, I'm most excited about Tim Robinson and Sam Richardson meeting an alien for Totino's Pizza Rolls.

Will you be one of Americans watching next weekend?

SWEETHEART DAY @ THE OFFICE 2/15

THE SWEETEST DAY AT RC IS LESS THEN A MONTH AWAY. MAKE PLANS FOR A NICE RIDE WITH THAT SPECIAL SOMEONE OR JUST YOUR FRIENDS. BRING YOUR THERMOS TO FILL UP ON COMPLIMENTARY HOT COCOA AND COFFEE AT THE OFFICE.

WINTER TIP OF THE DAY

Has a cold or 'flu got you looking a little more like Rudolph than you'd like at this time of year?

The first tip, place the tip of your tongue at the roof of your mouth, then press the part of your forehead between your eyes. Repeat for 20 seconds.

The second tip involves holding your nose, tipping your head back and holding your breath for as long as you can.

Seriously; once you try them you'll wonder why you've never heard of them before.
